

VIVI AAKJAER

Chairwoman, Danish Inventors Association & INVENTOR, DOUBLE LOOPS® DENMARK

Vivi Aakjaer is one of the few Danish professionally inventors and co- founder of The Danish Inventor Association. She was one of the primus motors, and the initiative back in 2005 that made it possible, to realize the project up to now.

She has received great recognition over the years for her work. The activities are widely spread, also as writer about innovations. One is a book published by the leading Danish business newspaper “Boersen” with the title: ”The forgotten store”describing the waste of potential for growth in business.

She is educated at the Danish Customs & Tax Department, later educated as academy economist. After that, she worked in a private company with export sale for some years, until she started as inventor and entrepreneur, also with advisory and lectures. The 2 last year she has been co-owner of a Mechanical factory, where she made a turnaround, in order to make it more profitable.